

The CyberLeaders Seminar Series Presents

Stewart Baker

Stewart Baker is a partner in the law firm of Steptoe & Johnson in Washington, D.C. From 2005 to 2009, he was the first Assistant Secretary for Policy at the Department of Homeland Security. His law practice covers homeland security, international trade, cybersecurity, data protection, and travel and foreign investment regulation.

As an intelligence lawyer, Mr. Baker has been General Counsel of the National Security Agency and of the commission that investigated WMD intelligence failures prior to the Iraq war. He is the author of Skating on Stilts, a book on terrorism, cybersecurity, and other technology issues, and he blogs about such topics on www.skatingonstilts.com.

Wednesday, April 26, 4:00-5:00 p.m.

NCR

Virginia Tech Research Center
Foggy Bottom Room, 2nd Floor
900 N. Glebe Road
Arlington, VA 22203

Blacksburg

Whittemore Hall
Room 281
1185 Perry Street
Blacksburg, VA 24061

VirginiaTech®

Hume Center for National Security and Technology

For more information contact: Russ Walker | rswalker@vt.edu

hume.vt.edu

Sponsored by a generous grant from the Hewlett Foundation